FATALES

Sexy 5003

We select the most inspiring dames of last year, with more than a few surprises along the way.

Whoever said that being an editor at Femme Fatales was a complete cakewalk didn't know what he was talking about.

How would you like to be forced to choose a more $0 super-hot women out of the mindbogging smogashord of flatulous busies that were subjected to each and every year? And white others might sriffle and white of a flatuneway with horsey-worde, unfailingly affectionate achesses, models and photogene professionals from all words of all flatunes, well, left's just say we rose to the occasion.

What were our criteria in orealms this attooched ist? What did we domand of these shriving examples of our species? Were there written exams to be taken, physical tests to be performed or samples of genetic material that had to messure up to our agrounds scenario standards? No, not really. We demanded just one simple thing from our favorite women of the year. They laid to be hot. Though it helped if they were also articulate, soproechable and a blast to tak it.

We'll be the first to admit that we're not doing these lades some log favor by going them exposize in our humble magazine — oh no. The huth is, we're the ones honored to have these women of wonder gracing our pages. So here's to you, the Famore Fatales of 2013.
